Bobby Says Riots Come Before War

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy challenges the contention of Gen. Wallace M. Green Jr., Marine Corps commandant, that Vietnam is more important than the plight of U.S. cities.

"That's a mistake," the New York Democrat said in an interview. "President Johnson has said we can fight the war and still act on our problems at home."

"Our first priority should be to our own people. We are on the brink of the most serious crisis since the Civil War."

"It seems to me we are devoting all of the resources required to the war in Vietnam but we are not doing so in respect to our domestic problems. There is no question that we have not done what we should have done for the urban and rural poor."

Green told the American Legion convention Wednesday in Boston that if the United States does not stop the Communists in their promotion of world revolution "then our domestic problems and our pocketbooks are going to become mighty important in the future."

War No. 1

The Marine Corps chief criticized what he said was an attitude of pessimism at home about the progress of the war. He said when he left Vietnam three weeks ago after his sixth visit there, "I left an atmosphere of optimism."

Sen. John Sparkman, D-Ala., a leading Johnson policy supporter on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in another interview he thinks

Americans are entirely too pessimistic about Vietnam. "We need confidence and patience," he said. "We not only are going to win the war but we are winning it now. No military expert I have talked to has given me any contrary report."

Peace Plan

Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., a critic of the Saigon military regime, said there is growing unrest in this country "based on a realization that our real objectives in South Vietnam are not appreciably nearer attainment than they have been during all the many years of our involvement."

And Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., proposed in a speech to the Legion convention that military leaders be directed to develop a "war-ending plan" for the use of ground, naval and air power "necessary to win as quickly as possible and bring our men home."

"I see no prospect of early success under a policy of applying military pressure in a limited, gradual and piecemeal fashion," Stennis said. "We must face up to an unpleasant job and get it over with."

Riot Squads Nip Milwaukee Rally

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Squads of riot-clad police backed up Mayor Henry Maier's ban against demonstrations with a show of force Wednesday night, twice scattering bands of Negro demonstrators who clustered in a chanting chorus outside their burned out headquarters.

At least 50 persons were arrested and two were injured in the sweeps by police outside the fire-ravaged hull of the "Freedom House" of the Milwaukee Youth Council, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The demonstrators said they would hold an indoor rally to night—possibly inside a Roman Catholic church.

gathered once more by the Freedom House.

The singing and chanting began again.

Again the police moved in and the crowd was scattered. This time bottles flew.

Father Groppi insisted the group was on private property when the police moved in. He said police went right in homes next to the Freedom House looking for demonstrators.

"No guy can just run into a man's house without a warrant," the priest said. "That's just what they did. They ran right into Mrs. Mitchell's house and she just lost her son in Vietnam."

Kennedy said he had no reason to change his opinion that Sunday's South Vietnamese elections will be a fraud. Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., said earlier the poll-watching mission of 22 prominent Americans sent to Saigon by Johnson "can't amount to a damn."

Aiken told an interviewer that appointment of the group was "a long shot on the part of the President to bolster his position" that the elections would be conducted fairly.

British Try To Avoid Break In China Relations

LONDON (AP) — Britain, hoping to keep its listening post in Peking and its hold on Hong Kong, sought today to avoid a total break with Red China by offering to discuss normalization of relations following violent incidents in Peking and London.

There was no detectable sign, however, that the British expected the Chinese to agree to a message suggesting talks.

The offer Wednesday came by British Foreign Secretary George Brown to Chinese Foreign Minister Chen Yi, was seen primarily as an effort to prevent a further deterioration in relations at a time when British officials feel a change in China's leadership may be near and want observers on the scene.

No one would say so officially, but British officials are known to feel that Communist party Chairman Mao Tse-tung's campaign to purge his enemies is heading toward a climax in which his authority may diminish.

British officials declined to say whether Brown proposed a personal meeting with Chen or discussions through normal diplomatic channels.

The Foreign Office said Shen Ping, China's charge d'affaires in London, also was handed a copy of the message but refused to accept it.

The Peking-London feud has been over Hong Kong, the British colony of 4 million on Red China's southern coast. Local Communists, with encouragement from Peking, have been trying to gain the upper hand there.

After Britain ignored Red China's ultimatum to free Communist newspapermen held on sedition charges, a mob burned out the British mission in Peking on Aug. 22.

In retaliation, Britain restricted the movement of Chinese diplomats in London. Those diplomats charged out of their legation with axes, iron bars and baseball bats Tuesday and clashed with London police and a crowd of Britons.

This set off another anti-British demonstration in Peking Wednesday.

Rush Machines, Men Into Battle On Forest Fires

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Several big fires in the Pacific Northwest during the day.

In fighting the fires, strong pumps weighing only 30 pounds are put into action by firemen minutes after water is located.

Trucks carry bulldozers to the front lines and convert instantly to water tankers with inflatable tanks.

Modern packaging makes it possible to drop ground equipment from planes, including field offices, tools, water and dried and frozen food.

Men carry protective shelters on their backs which offer refuge when 150-degree fires surround them.

The Forest Service, and nearly every other fire fighting agency, uses a commercial mixture which contains ammonium sulfate, to retard fires.

Pick And Shovel

So far this summer the Forest Service has dropped a million gallons in the Northwest. Besides stopping the fires, it fertilizes the soil.

Not all the weapons are new. Observers, in towers rising from the highest peaks, still watch for fires and relay radio messages to remote spots.

Thousands of men still work with picks and shovels in the face of the spreading inferno.

When the weather gets so dry and hot that any little spark will start a blaze, the foresters begin to rely on old-fashioned hope.

This year there has been a record drought in the Northwest. Wood said the number of fires may exceed any other summer.

Wood is sure things would be way past hope by now without the latest weapons.

"They have saved our bacon numerous times," he said.

Announce Strike Target Tonight:

UAW Strike Aid Asked

DETROIT (AP) — The Ford National Council of the United Auto Workers Union recommended today calling of a special UAW convention to beef up the union's strike fund in the event a walkout is called next week to support new contract demands.

Similar resolutions were expected shortly from meetings of the union's General Motors and Chrysler Councils.

The convention, according to reliable sources, would be called for Sept. 23. Contracts at all three companies expire at midnight next Wednesday.

The Ford Council's resolution asked that the special convention "provide an appropriate temporary increase in UAW strike insurance fund dues for as long as it is deemed necessary by the International Executive Board."

Presumably, a convention would not be called unless there is a strike against one of the Big Three automakers, whose initial economic offers also were rejected by the national councils.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther is scheduled to announce a strike target at a 5:15 news conference today.

With only seven days left before current three-year contracts between the UAW, and the companies expire, union negotiators have termed initial offers "inadequate and inequitable."

The Ford Council's resolution said "the possibility of strike

Power Groups Called Cause For Inflation

Springfield, Mo. (AP) — Gov. George Romney attacked labor unions, deficit spending, inflation and President Johnson during a visit Wednesday to Springfield.

Romney, an undeclared Republican presidential contender, was interrupted 22 times by applause when he spoke to 3,000 Missouri Republicans in Springfield Wednesday night.

Earlier in the day, the Michigan governor told a news conference "an excessive concentration of power" in labor unions contributes to inflation and causes other segments of the nation—including militant Negroes—to organize into power-seeking groups.

Excessive Power

Romney, a former president of American Motors Corp., said the United Auto Workers and other major unions "exercise a degree of private power that is more excessive than any private power we've ever had in this nation in the past without it."

"Today's laws governing business prohibit monopoly, as they should," Romney said at the rally of Greene County Republicans.

"Today's laws governing unions encourage monopoly, as they should not. This fundamental conflict in economic policy is distorting our entire economic scene and it must be corrected."

Romney had soft-pedaled national political issues since Monday, when the Midwestern Governors Conference began at Osage Beach, Mo. The conference ended Wednesday.

Economic Mess

He said President Johnson has led the nation into "a real economic and financial mess" and added Johnson can be beaten in 1968.

"I think the president would have a very difficult time winning re-election if the Republican party takes advantage of the opportunity," he said. "Whether it will or not, I don't know."

Romney, who the latest Gallup Poll says could defeat Johnson in an election today, also said:

—Unbalanced federal budgets are worse than tax increases or spending cuts, but the surplus proposed by Johnson is not an adequate solution to the nation's fiscal problems.

—Johnson acts solely for political reasons, ignoring social and moral principles. "I think he's a political animal," Romney said.

—Government programs should be restricted to areas where individuals' and voluntary private associations are unable to solve their problems.

Reds Step Up Pre-Election Terror Action

SAIGON (AP) — Communist guerrillas dotted South Vietnam with pre-election assaults and terror attacks today, shelling a fourth provincial capital in as many days and kidnaping 39 draft-age men in another village.

With Sunday's presidential election only three days off, officials warned that worse Red violence was expected. Americans off duty were warned to stay in their billets.

U. S. Command announced the loss of two more warplanes over North Vietnam, maintaining a recent loss rate of more than one plane a day.

The weekly casualty report reflected the current lull in ground fighting, with 125 Americans killed last week and 1,078 wounded. Both totals were up slightly from the previous week but were below the average of recent months.

Communist losses were 1,350, also below average, while the South Vietnamese had 101 killed and 367 wounded, well below the American figures and reflecting the increased role of U. S. troops in Vietnam.

Attack In South

The latest terrorist attacks were scattered through the Mekong Delta, the Saigon area and the central provinces. The guerrillas were generally lying low in the far north after spectacular attacks Tuesday in which two dozen hit-and-run strikes were made and 997 prisoners were freed from the provincial jail at Quang Ngai.

Two American Army advisers and a U.S. government civilian employee were killed south of Quang Ngai when guerrillas caught two platoons of militiamen in a crossfire as they were trying to recapture some of the freed prisoners. A crewman of a U.S. rescue helicopter also was wounded, but the Viet Cong slipped away when Vietnamese army reinforcements arrived.

Capture Young Men

The fourth provincial capital hit this week was the normally sleepy town of Phan Thiet, on the coast about 95 miles east of Saigon. Mortar shells began to fall at 1:30 a.m., and when the 15-round barrage ended a small child was dead and 11 civilians were wounded. About the same time a band of guerrillas entered the village of Cua Doi, 288 miles north of Saigon, and carried off 39 young men at gunpoint. The normal Communist tactic is to indoctrinate such captives and put them in Viet Cong units.

Despite Communist efforts, the election campaign appeared undisturbed. Rallies were held throughout the nation and international observers—including the 22 Americans sent by President Johnson—began to appear at offices and campaign meetings.

Military headquarters reported relatively clear skies over North Vietnam Wednesday, with 157 missions taking off from Thailand, South Vietnam and three carriers in the Tonkin Gulf.

Firemen Seek Pay Hike; 37 Call Sick

SAGINAW (AP) — Saginaw firemen continued calling in sick Wednesday in an apparent attempt to underscore demands for higher pay.

A total of 37 fire fighters have called their stations to report sick. Two of the city's seven stations have been closed.

Earl Dequise, president of Fire Fighters Local 422, said the sick call campaign was undertaken by individual firemen and the union did not support the action.

30-Day March Ban

The police acted after Mayor Maier declared a state of emergency and imposed a 30-day ban on marches and demonstrations on Milwaukee's streets and sidewalks.

"There'll be a rally tomorrow, maybe in St. Boniface church," said the Rev. James E. Groppi, assistant pastor at the Roman Catholic parish in the predominantly Negro Inner Core, Wednesday night.

The priest, who said he was chased by police during their second drive against the "Freedom House," is adviser to the youth council and the leader of its open housing marches into the predominantly Polish South Side.

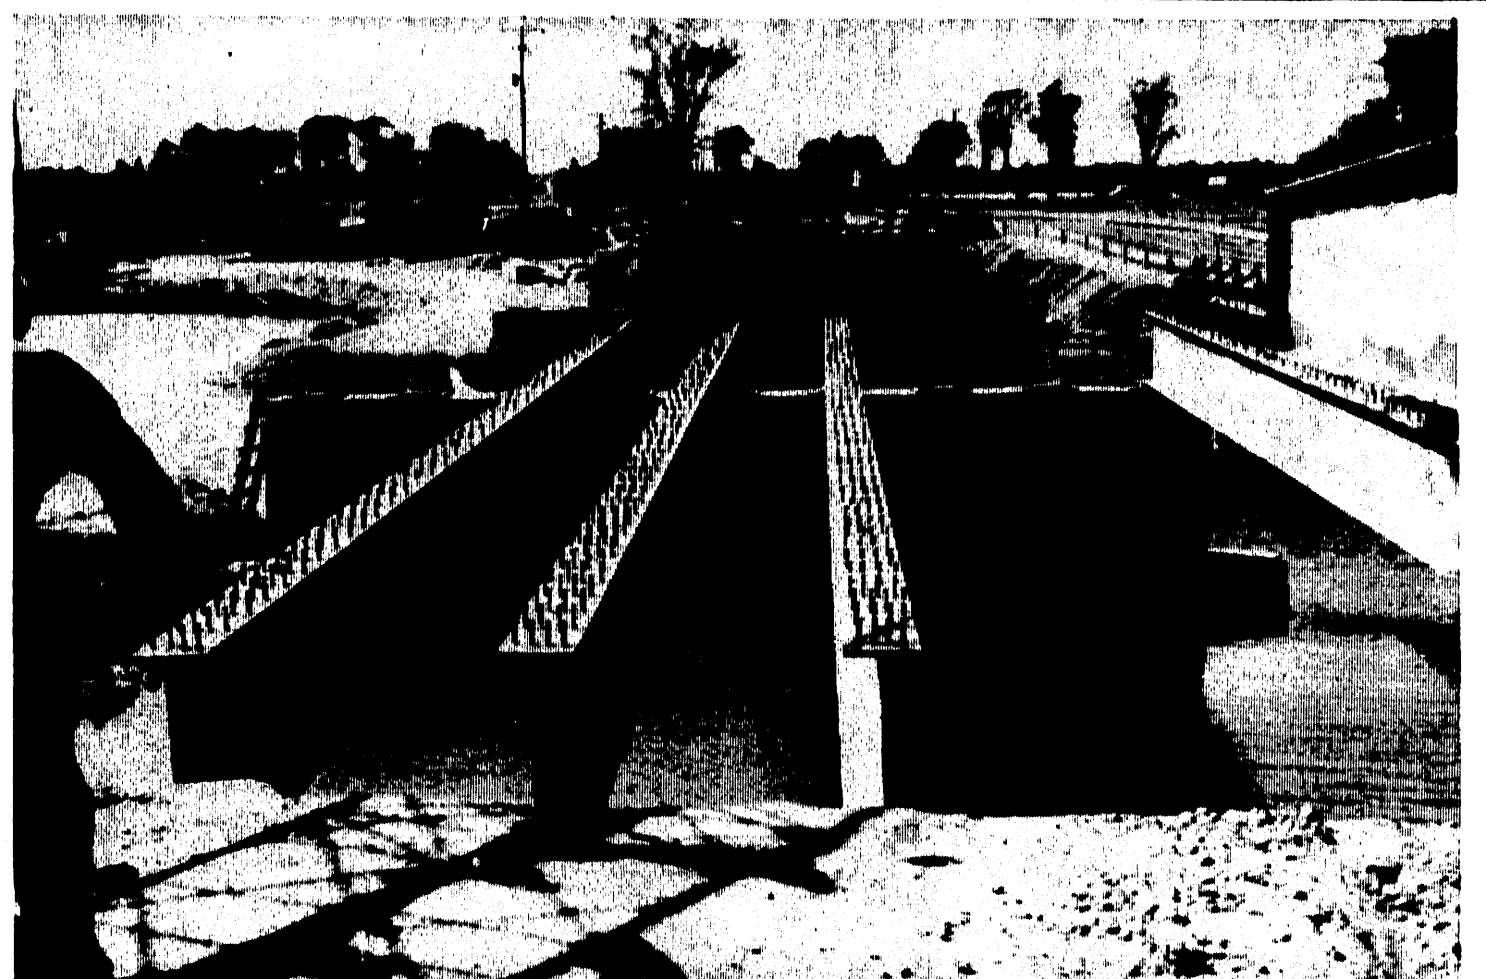

The mayor's proclamation of a state of emergency came after the second night of marches Tuesday night drew increasingly hostile and more unruly throngs of whites. The marches resulted in 24 injuries and 61 arrests.

Act Quickly

Wednesday, police secured the area around "Freedom House" within about 15 minutes.

But about an hour later, a group of about 60 persons, including Father Groppi, had

Voters Reject Millage:

School Board Faces Major Budget Cuts

By DAVE ANDREWS
Where do you trim $150,000 or $200,000 from a school budget which is almost totally committed?

The Escanaba Area Board of Education faced that problem today after the resounding defeat at the polls Wednesday of a proposal to levy five mills for five years which would have provided the school district with the additional revenue to balance the proposed $2,438,000 budget.

Voters of the school district rejected the proposal in all 10 precincts, piling up 2,369 votes against to 956 in favor.

"The Board of Education, the superintendent and business manager are going to have to sit down to see what economies can be made," said Mrs. Robert Mosenfelder, president of the board.

Budget Committed
"There is a great portion of the budget which is committed beyond the point where we can make changes," she said.

Next regular meeting of the Board is Sept. 12.

According to information provided by the Board of Education prior to the election, anticipated expenditures exceeded available revenues by some $217,000. The five mills, if approved, would have raised about $269,000, providing money to balance the budget and leave a surplus.

Members of the Board who gathered Wednesday night in the office of Supt. Luther M. Barrett to tabulate the vote indicated, however, that the deficit might not be as large as originally anticipated because of a fund balance of some $50,000 which will be carried over from 1966-67 operations.

Forrest Henslee, board trustee, said $164,000 would have to be trimmed from the 1967-68 budget proposals to balance expenditures with revenue.

Asks Review
It was pointed out that the $2,438,000 budget is still tentative and although many of the items, such as teacher and non-professional employees salaries, are already committed by contract, there are areas which might be modified or delayed.

Mrs. Mosenfelder said she has asked Stephen Baltic, the district's business manager, to mark all of the items on the budget which are committed, giving the Board an indication of where trims may be made.

She pointed out that about 80 per cent of the budget annually goes toward salaries.

"We are going to have to make some economies that we don't want to," she added, "but we have no other choice."

The Board has not indicated which direction any such economies might go, but in 1964-65 when the district faced a similar deficit situation maintenance, teaching supplies, and other areas were cut. Most extra-curricular activities, including the athletic program, were continued and there has been no indication from the Board that they would be cut back this year.

Not Unique Here

Mrs. Mosenfelder said that the financial situation facing the Escanaba Area school district is not unique to this area, pointing out that school districts all over the state are faced with increasing costs and salaries to meet. In the Upper Peninsula this week, voters in Menominee and Manistique rejected similar five mill tax requests.

She said that because of bargaining powers granted teachers and non-professional employes by the legislature school districts have lost considerable control over expenses and while the board doesn't dispute the need for increased salaries it hasn't received the additional financial assistance needed to meet them.

"The situation wasn't created locally and won't be resolved locally," she said. "The question now is what to do. We either have a deficit or we have an inadequate education program."

Wheaton Strom, another Board member, has pointed out that while it is against state law to budget a deficit, it is also against the law to provide inadequate schooling. It's a question of which law to violate, he said.

The vote Wednesday was overwhelmingly against increasing local taxes with all precincts voting "No." In the city's seven precincts, the proposal was defeated 1,762 to 811. Cornell, Wells and Ford River Townships combined to vote "No" by a 607 to 145 count.

The precinct breakdown:

Precinct	Yes	No

Forest Betterment Costs Are Shared

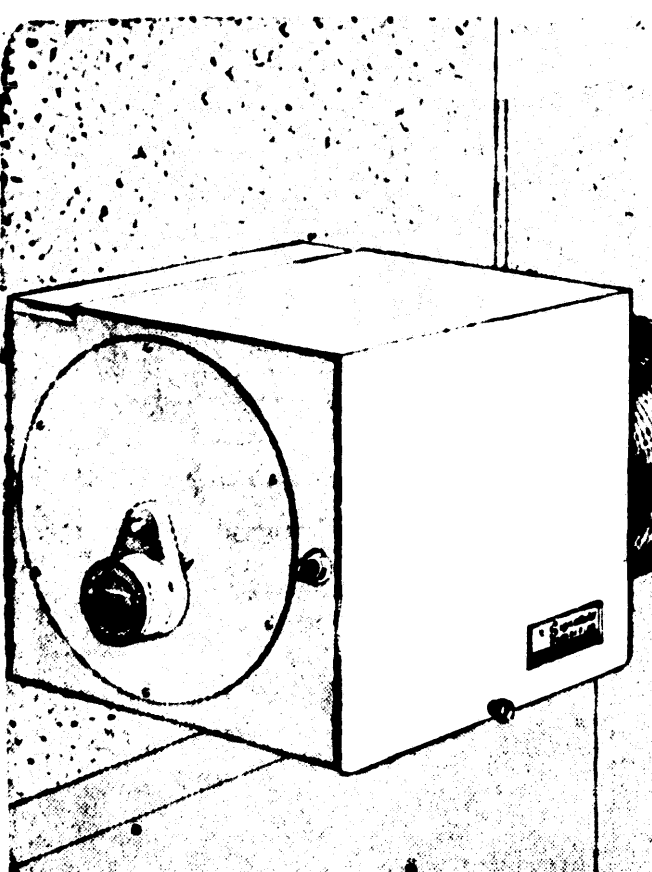

Frank Light, chairman of the Michigan Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee states that since 1936, the Agricultural Conservation Program has cost-shared with farmers for approved timber stand improvement and other conservation practices.

Timber stand improvement is an important step in making woodlands productive. Practices include thinning, which provides room for rapid growth, improved stands and earlier harvest; pruning crop trees, which help grow knot-free logs for high quality lumber and veneer; release by girdling and other means to give the young trees a faster growth; site preparation by natural re-seeding, which provides seedbed preparation, making more moisture and sunlight available; and fencing, which protects the woodland area from livestock.

In addition to timber stand improvement, soil and water conservation practices help to provide better wildlife habitat and areas for recreation.

Fine Performance

Another summer fishing period is ending and its step-down from the peak of the warm weather sport can be noted in the weekly reports from the Conservation Department on fishermen's luck in the Upper Peninsula.

For the public we compliment the Conservation Department on the excellence of these weekly bulletins on fishing conditions. Each year they improve and they provide a factual guide to fishermen in this wonderful sport.

The reports become more imaginative and relate that the black flies are especially pestiferous north of Treenary or that the roads are in poor conditions or that worm harnesses seem to be the best kind of bait for walleyes and frog plugs for northerns.

The fishing reports mark a maturing conservation service to the public. When first introduced by the department they caused some flak from resorts in areas which were not mentioned as among the most likely places to fill the basket, but we no longer hear such complaints and we surmise that there are not as many as there used to be because the businessmen in recreation today are more hep. They realize that we must first of all provide fishing and other activities for our guests and that, having done that, we must tell them where to find it and how to enjoy it.

The Conservation Department is doing an increasingly good job in all these fields and deserves public commendation.

In this connection, we believe that the department will in the future provide more guidance for hunters, too. It has been doing this for years, of course, and the hunt presents different problems than fishing. Most fishing is in public waters, while much of the hunt is on private lands, but the game belongs to the state, not the landowner and Conservation Department personnel knows more about it than any other group.

The need for more Conservation Department guidance for deer hunters and for hunters of small upland game is clearly evident in the Upper Peninsula. Large areas of the Upper Peninsula have very light hunting pressure and as a result do not produce as much game as they could. Guidance could help the processes of better distribution of hunters and provision of more hunter's luck.

The Conservation Department publishes maps of hunt areas and provides statistics on the kills to indicate the best places to hunt and also gives counsel on prospects for the new seasons. But even with this guidance there is a spotty distribution of hunters, with heavy access on accessibility and with most hunters to be found along the highways.

With increasing pressures on wildlife as the population grows and with the increasing public reliance on testing, counseling, guidance and general hand-holding, it will not be surprising if in the year 1977 the annual deer hunt will begin not with the purchase of a license, but with an appointment with a hunt counselor.

The nimrod will tell the counselor where he'd like to hunt and the counselor will look at his data and suggest that the quota for the Squaw Creek area is already filled and that he'd better try the Haymeadow this year, because the pellet count there is high and the hunter head count is low. The hunter has his license punched for the pressure map, passes his vision test, is certified as emotionally stable and not trigger happy, and takes off for his check point.

TIRE SHRAPNEL

Speeding along a gravel road, a motorist drove over a little pile of loose stones. One of the stones squirted sideways, crashed through the windshield of an oncoming car, and injured the other driver.

After litigation, the first motorist was held liable for the mishap. The court said that, in view of his speed and the condition of the road, he should have foreseen the likelihood of hurling "shrapnel" from his tires.

The case illustrates an important principle: a motorist must be alert not only to the general danger of collisions but also to the special dangers that arise from the speed, weight, and make-up of the car.

Fear Of Storm Saves Baby's Life

HILLSDALE (AP)—A baby's apparent fear of a thunderstorm was credited today with saving his life.

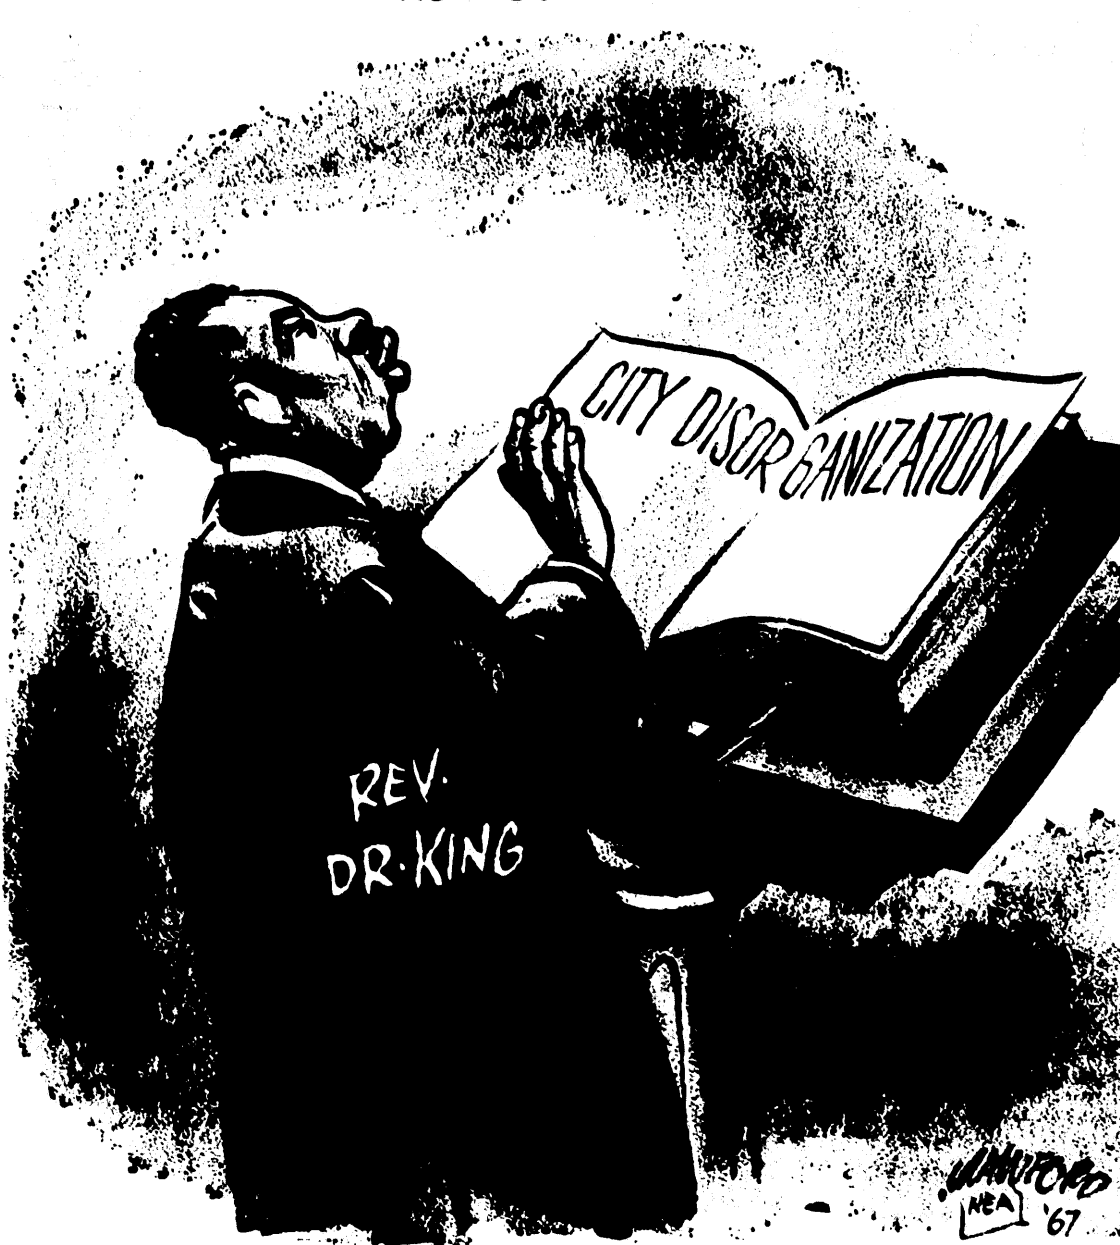

A lightning bolt demolished the crib of 18-month-old David Phillips of Somerset Center a short time after he had been lifted from it by his mother, Mrs. Wendell Phillips.

She had picked the baby's crying during the storm had awakened her and she went to his room and stretched out with him on a cot to calm him. The lightning bolt hit the crib at the foot of the bed and caused the crib to fall and crush the baby.

Viet Election Is A Step To Self Rule

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON — (NEA)—In evaluating the upcoming national elections in South Vietnam, one thing should be kept in mind:

The South Vietnamese elections last year that produced the constitutional assembly were pretty botched up, too. But that did not prevent the people from electing a group of men with the courage to stand up against the ruling army junta and write the kind of a constitution they believed in.

At the time of those elections, this reporter talked to men and women in 13 South Vietnam provinces. Many of these men and women could not read. But those who did read, they picked at random from the people on the streets in rural hamlets, gave surprisingly thoughtful reasons for their vote. They listened to the different candidates, picked their arguments apart with the logic of the everyday man and woman.

They turned down some government favorites and nacked politicians and elected a surprising number of younger professional men with little experience but a considerable idealism.

Furthermore, the constitution written by these independent-minded men so clipped the power of the president and the whole executive branch of the government that the military candidates will not be able to ride roughshod if elected (as it's assumed they will be), so long as they obey the constitution.

The danger that Vietnamese civilians see is that this constitution will be ignored or its provisions whittled away. "The old constitution wasn't bad," a leading Vietnamese attorney-politician told this reporter some months back. "The trouble was, it wasn't followed."

This is where the U.S. embassy and Gen. Westmoreland come in. U.S. officials must have the courage to tell the

Questions And Answers

Q—Does only the female pigeon produce "pigeon milk"?
A—Both the male and female produce the milk during the breeding season.

Q—What inscription appears under the pediment of the west portico of the Supreme Court Building?

A—"Equal Justice Under Law."

Q—Do both the male and female mosquito bite?

A—Only the female. The male mosquito is never attracted to human beings, and feeds on plant sap.

Q—What college did President Lyndon B. Johnson attend?

A—Southwest Texas State College (Teacher's) San Marcos, Tex. He was graduated in 1930 with a B. S. degree.

Q—What was President Lyndon Johnson's first proclamation?

A—His first proclamation, on Nov. 23, 1963, was a declaration of a day of national mourning (Nov. 25) as a tribute to his predecessor, John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

new government that if it expects continued U. S. help, it must adhere to the Vietnamese written constitution.

The major national association of Vietnamese students is much more mature in its assessment of the national elections than many American detractors. These students have stated they recognize there will be many election irregularities. They expect the military incumbents to take advantage of their positions to influence the vote.

But these students are not cynical or discouraged. Instead, they have said that in moving toward democracy, these elections are a necessary first step. It is their own duty, the students say, to work to make these elections as clean as possible under the present very difficult circumstances. They're not expecting the impossible.

This student view is the honest way to look at these elections. They're a step toward democracy, a small step perhaps, but a move in the right direction. This doesn't mean that election dishonesty should be ignored. On the contrary, American and Vietnamese newspapermen should report every case of fraud or strongarming and U. S. officials should push for punishment of every irregularity.

Only by broadcasting irregularities and praising fairness where it is found will South Vietnam continue to progress toward democratic self-rule.

Bidding Gives Danger Signal

two jacks above the minimum and he had a second four-card suit to show. He bid two clubs. Lightning didn't strike immediately—North had too much club support—but when it did hit it burned the barn down.

West made a slightly optimistic bid of three hearts and North went to four clubs. For all North knew his side might have a cinch for five or six clubs and East and West might have just as easy a game in hearts. If you don't think so, just trade South's jack of hearts for East's ten of diamonds. In that case only a spade lead or spade shift would beat five clubs and nothing will beat four hearts.

South's actual hand is such that a diamond opening will hold West to nine tricks at hearts. As for the four club contract, West decided to double and the defense picked up five tricks to score 500 points.

Q—The bidding has been:
West North East South
1♣ 1♥ 1♠ 2NT
Pass 3♥ Pass 3♥
Pass 4♥ Pass 5♥

You, South, hold:
AK9♥AJ54♦132♠AK1076

What do you do now?

A—Pass. Your partner has bid very strongly but your king of clubs is likely to be opposite a singleton and worthless for slam purposes.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding four hearts over your three hearts, your partner bids three spades. What do you do now?

Hayme throughout the county is quite favorable and the farmers of the area have a good supply of hay. Barley is beginning to ripen and it looks to be an average crop, says County Farm Agent B. P. Pattison.

Plans were completed yesterday to make the Labor Day celebration here surpass any event ever held here. Many awards will be given.

TELEVISION

At the risk of sounding anti-education, I would urge that Channel 5 (WFRV—of Green Bay) be given the channel assigned to Escanaba (Channel 3) for its proposed re-transmitting facility.

And let's do it right away, before Channel 5 decides to forget the whole idea and we are left "crying over spilled milk," as it were.

Just a short time ago, a business interest from Iron Mountain announced that it wished to erect a re-transmitting facility at Gladstone for the three Green Bay stations. The facility would have provided excellent television service for the entire area.

But then the firm's application was bottled up in Washington with the help of another local business interest. Since nearly no local voices rose in protest, a golden opportunity slipped through our fingers.

The transmitting capabilities of Channel 3 versus those of Channel 13 have been known for some time. Now, suddenly, when a private interest wishes to invest its money in a project which will benefit Upper Peninsula citizens, Northern Michigan University decides that it must have Channel 3 because Channel 13 "won't work."

Channel 3 "belongs" to Escanaba and WFRV-TV "got there first."

I hope that those who wish to obtain decent television in the Upper Peninsula and who think as I do will contact their city councilman immediately and make their views known.

The time to act is now.

Trial Is Ordered For Slayer Of Policeman's Son

DETROIT (AP)—A 15-year-old boy charged with the fatal stabbing of a policeman's son at Cobo Hall April 20 has been ordered to stand trial as an adult.

Freddie Lane of Detroit was turned over to Recorder's Court by Juvenile Court Judge James H. Lincoln. Lane stood mute when arraigned on a charge of first-degree murder before Recorder's Judge Calvin C. Rock. A plea of innocent was entered and a sanity hearing was ordered. Preliminary examination was set for Sept. 8.

Lane is charged in the fatal stabbing of George Overman Jr., 15, who was stabbed to death while walking into Cobo Hall to play in a band concert.

Judge Lincoln gave no reason for his ruling, saying a statement would be inappropriate in light of the charge facing Lane.

Dear Ann Landers: The letter from the woman who was mad at the jewelry store because of the letter they wrote reminding her that they had "carried her longer than her mother" prompts me to write my first letter to a newspaper.

I work in a collection office and am one of those "terrible" people who writes those "ugly" letters and makes those "insulting" phone calls. We are willing to make allowances for illness and accidents and unexpected trips out of the city. We even expect people to have a lapse of memory occasionally. We operate on the theory that most people are honest and decent.

Since I have been in this line of work, however, I have learned plenty. I have had people swear at me over the phone, call me unprintable names and hang up on me because I called to remind them that they haven't paid a bill.

When we send people out to the house they sometimes hide and refuse to come to the door. They act as if we are trying to persecute them or take something away from them.

Please, Ann Landers, print my letter and let some of America's deadbeats see how they look in the eyes of others.—DISGUSTED

Dear Gus: I second the motion. And now may I add a comment? Life would be a lot less complicated if people would stop buying things they don't need at prices they can't afford to impress people who don't give a darn.

Dear Ann Landers: Your column has hit me between the eyes on more than one occasion, but never quite so hard as last week. You told the wife who complained because her husband was a TV Sports Nut that everybody is nutty in one way or another. You even said your own husband was a "work nut". Then you counseled the woman to consider herself lucky she wasn't married to a "girlie nut".

Well, Ann, I have news for you. My husband is not a "girlie nut" but I wish he were. I could fight that. He is a "buddy nut". How does a wife deal with a man who loves to be with "the boys"? It can be a card game, pool, bowling, fishing, hunting, soccer, handball—anything where men get together. If there's no buddy activity he can go to, he'll just sit in a bar and talk to the bartender. If you can come up with a solution to this you are a genius. Thank you.—BEST-ED BY THE BOYS

Dear Bested: Offhand I can think of a few things a wife can do for her husband that "the boys" can't. If more wives would listen to themselves talk to their husbands when they walk in at night they might get a clue as to why the guy would rather be elsewhere.

Confidentially to Hadditup-tobere: Kwitchebelyachin. Your parents are the ones who should be complaining, not you. They are not "sticking their noses into your business" when they insist on knowing where and with whom you are, and ask that you phone to let them know when you will be later than was agreed upon.

Too many couples go from matrimony to acrimony. Don't let your marriage flop before it gets started. Send for Ann Landers' booklet, "Marriage—What To Expect." Send your request to Ann Landers in care of your newspaper enclosing 50c in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped and self-addressed envelope.

Irish Stowaway Likes The USA

NEW YORK (AP)—The handsome young Irishman had an easy explanation when asked why he had twice in 12 months stowed away on the liner Queen Elizabeth.

"I like it here," John Joseph Hamill told inquiring federal officials here. "I wanted to see America."

A year ago Hamill, 23, of Belfast, stowed away on the Queen and managed to get ashore for a week in New York before federal agents caught him. He was later deported.

This time he was three days out of Southampton, England, when he was picked up after sipping coffee on the liner's promenade deck. A U.S. customsman held him at $5,000 bail.

Menasha, Wis. Marine Dating Lynda Bird

WASHINGTON (AP) — A one-time bridge partner has become Lynda Bird Johnson's most frequent social companion, reports the Washington Post.

And the newspaper noted that actor George Hamilton, once Lynda's frequent companion, has seen little of her this summer.

The Post said Marine Capt. Charles Robb of Menasha, Wis., a White House aide, has been dating the President's daughter several times a week.

A former White House aide said Robb first met Miss Johnson when he was invited to play bridge at the White House last year "and it's hard to say when it stopped being just bridge and became dating," the newspaper said.

"I'd really prefer not to say what the status of our relationship is," Robb told the Post Wednesday. "I want to stay out of the commenting business."

Robb expects to be assigned to Vietnam early next year. His mother told the Post, in a telephone interview from Milwaukee, that "Chuck not only expects to go, but I think he wants to go, very much."

Nahma

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Guiles and daughter, Mary, and son Bruce of Lansing spent the weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Raich.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Blowers, of Ansonia, Ind., are spending a week's vacation at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick LeBrasseur of Kalamazoo spent the weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton LeBrasseur.

Garden Peninsula

Sp. 4 Dennis Winter left Sunday morning for Fort Irwin, Calif. He had spent the past three weeks at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Winter and family. On Sept. 5 he will leave for eight months' duty in Vietnam with the 36th Engineer Battalion.

Dianne M. Bal Bride Of Gary C. Williams

Dianne Marie Bal of Powers became the bride of Gary Carter Williams during a ceremony performed Saturday, Aug. 26 at St. Francis Xavier Church in Spalding.

Rev. Aloysius Ehlinger officiated at the nuptials and altar boys serving the nuptial mass at 11:30 a. m. were John and Jim Fazer.

Apricot gladiolus and carnations adorned the church altars and Mrs. Wallace Wells provided the traditional organ music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bal of Powers.

Silk Organza

The bride chose a floor length sheath gown of silk organza fashioned with an Empire bodice and sheer bell sleeves. The gown was accented with Alencon lace appliques on the sleeves and bodice.

A crown of aurora borealis and pearls held her fingertip veil of imported French illusion. She carried a cascade arrangement of orchids, carnations and stephanotis. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Matron of honor was Barbara Hafeman and bridesmaids were Janice Bal of Powers, Gayle W. Bode of Denton, Texas and Georgia Strable of Manistique.

Apricot Linen

They wore floor length gowns of light apricot linen fashioned with Empire bodices, elbow length sleeves and center back panels attached by large bows. Serving as bestman was David C. Bode of Denton, Texas, brother-in-law of the bride.

Stork Shower

A surprise Stork shower was held in honor of Mrs. Don Shannon at the home of Mrs. Louis Fazer in Powers, on Tuesday evening, Aug. 29.

A white cake trimmed with pink and blue booties and pink roses was made by Mrs. Stanley Mazur and centered the luncheon table. A stork centerpiece on the gift table Mrs. Shannon was presented with an appropriate corsage of baby doll surrounded by yellow snapdragons and baby mums.

Games were played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Stewart Perry, Mrs. Jerome Wells, Mrs. William Nelson, Mrs. James Cory, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. James Nelson and Mrs. Bernard O'Neil, Jr. The guest award was won by Mrs. James Nelson.

Mrs. Shannon was presented with many gifts by the 18 guests present. Hostesses for the shower were Mrs. Louis Fazer, Mrs. Richard Barker and Mrs. Ralph Veaser, all of Powers.

Mrs. Gary C. Williams (John Duca photo)

Groom and groomsmen were Donald Bal, John Hafeman and John Smith, all of Powers. Seating the guests were Edward and Matt Setlock, uncles of the bride.

The mother of the bride selected a gold and brown knit suit with dark brown accessories and was presented a cymbidium orchid corsage.

Reception

The wedding reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Assisting were Nancy and Isobel Setlock, Dawn Wells, Judy Fazer and Mary Agnes Setlock.

For their honeymoon trip through Michigan and on to Texas where they will make their home, at 910 Eagle Drive, Denton, the bride wore a three piece gold knit suit with black patent accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Powers-Spalding High School and attended Northern Michigan University. Mr. Williams is a graduate of Castleberry High School in Fort Worth, Texas and he attended Pasadena City College in Los Angeles. He is presently a student at North Texas State University in Denton, Texas.

Romney Takes 6 Grandchildren To State Fair Today

DETROIT (AP) — Children becoming lost at the Michigan State Fair today stood a chance of hearing some reassuring words from Gov. George Romney.

Romney attends Governor's Day at the fair with his six grandchildren for a scheduled three hours.

And the last stop on his schedule was a visit to the Lost Children's Farm.

Mrs. Romney planned to present the First Lady Award to the woman with the outstanding record in homemaking awards in the Community Arts Building.

The new queen of the fair is a 20-year-old Warren lass, Ilona D. Woodson, who was chosen over 44 other contestants.

She is 5-foot-4 blonde with brown eyes and works as a model. Miss Woodson says she likes dress designing, sports car racing and breeding Siamese cats.

Army Parachutist

FT. Benning, Ga. (AP) — James Bond became a military parachutist Wednesday after completing an airborne training course.

He is not, however, the James Bond familiar to the international spy set, but a 21-year-old Army private from Live Oak, Fla.

Snatch Missions Yield Viet Cong Or Red Regulars

BONG SON PLAIN, Vietnam (AP) — Because the idea is to move in quickly and capture people, the 1st Brigade of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division officially calls them snatch missions.

Working with field forces of the South Vietnamese national police, the troopers conduct an average of two such missions a day in this coastal area 300 miles northeast of Saigon.

They move in with swift air operations that are designed to catch Viet Cong or North Vietnamese regulars who try to mingle with the peasants in the fields or people in hamlets and villages.

The Communists figure they won't be subject to an all-out shooting assault if they blend themselves with the people, and the snatch missions are designed to counter this strategy.

Typical Mission

Here is what it is like on a typical mission with the 1st Battalion, 12th Cavalry:

Lt. Col. Lloyd R. Rhiddlehoover of Hot Springs, Ark., the battalion commander, and Maj. Roderick E. Ordway of Chevy Chase, Md., crank up their command helicopter and fly over hostile territory looking for likely objectives. Back at the base, six helicopters with a platoon of cavalrymen stand by for orders.

"When we see a lot of people in the open fields working, we swoop down on them," Rhiddlehoover said. "I first select a target area by throwing smoke grenades, then helicopters loaded with U.S. troopers and Vietnamese national police swoop down and corral them 'right where they are, men, women and children."

Make Them Talk

"The national police then interrogate them and weed out the suspects. We get a lot of intelligence from the ones we round up. When the police get one, it snowballs. They make them talk."

"One of the Viet Cong we picked up gave us information that he knew where there were about 30 other Viet Cong. The next day we went in to police up the area. We picked up eight hard-core Viet Cong and weapons. The hideout was a message center for the district in the Bong Son plain. That was the contact point for the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong."

Working with the snatch teams are two scout ships, little bubble-topped helicopters that fly just above the ground chasing Viet Cong suspects who try to run.

Like Herding Cattle

"We try different times of the day," Ordway said. "Morning is the best time to hit. At times when they see us fly low, they wave at us. These Viet Cong, they're getting smarter all the time. One time one was dressed as a woman to try to keep from getting caught."

"They're sort of stunned for the first three minutes. This is when the scout ships come in, they swoop down low on the ones that are running to round them up, just like cattle. They move them toward the center of the rest of the people and then the troops go in and grab them."

Predict 29 Will Die In Labor Day Traffic Mishaps

LANSING (AP) — Motorists will travel an estimated 451 million miles on Michigan highways over the Labor Day weekend and about 29 of them will die in traffic crashes, the State Highway Commission predicts.

The commission says the fatality estimate is based on the fact that during the last 12 years an average of more than six persons have lost their lives in accidents for each 100 million miles driven during Labor Day weekends.

The Labor Day traffic toll has ranged from 12 fatalities in 1958 to 39 last year. Michigan has 3.2 million registered passenger cars.

The 78-hour weekend begins at 6 p.m. Friday and ends at midnight Monday.

When Bell Rings, Pilot Can Relax

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — In the dimly lit, night-club-style officers' club at Korat Air Force Base hangs a bell which every pilot flying over North Vietnam has an ambition to ring.

When it clangs through the mess and the pilot yells "Drinks all round" it means he has joined the exclusive 100-mission club.

He can relax. No more briefings. No more flak. No more MIGs.

He has finished his tour. He's going home.

Many pilots don't live to ring the bell.

Some, like Karl Richter, tried to ring it twice.

Fellow fighter pilots say Lt. Richter had ice water for blood. He was shot down last month on his 198th mission. He had applied to fly 100 more from South Vietnam.

There are six other bases in Thailand similar to Korat where the pilots have similar customs and face similar dangers.

But the names of the bases—Utapao, Takli, Udorn, Ubon, Nakhon Phanom—are unlikely to become household words and be talked about for deeds in the Vietnam war.

A tight security ban on news reporting from the bases has robbed the 40,000 Air Force men in Thailand of the satisfaction of seeing their part in the war recognized publicly.

The United States has lost more than 650 aircraft over North Vietnam. Over half came from Thai bases. More than 400

F105s have been shot down over North and South Vietnam. Most of these, too, came from Thai bases.

But the exploits of the pilots, apart from summaries given out at daily briefings in Saigon, are barely noticeable in accounts of the war.

"We're not glory hunters," said one Air Force pilot. "But it burns us up when we're shouldering the biggest part of the load and we don't get credit for it."

"We go out day after day at heavily defended targets and no one says anything—unless it is 'Stop the bombing.'"

"But the Navy goes out and drops a couple of 500-pound bombs and they make big headlines."

"You'd think we weren't in the war."

Despite grumbles, the morale of the fighter and fighter-bomber pilots is high.

The atmosphere among them is always tense.

They all know that the guy who sits next to you at breakfast may be shot down this afternoon—and, as happened in May, paraded through the streets of Hanoi before a jeering crowd of North Vietnamese.

Sex Crime Law Reform Urged

LANSING (AP)—The superintendent of Ionia State Hospital has urged reform in laws governing sex offenders, including transfer of dangerous sex criminals to prison after treatment.

Dr. A.A. Birzgalis made the recommendations in a statement to a special interim legislative committee created to investigate problems of dealing with criminal sexual psychopaths.

The superintendent's statement was released Wednesday by committee member Rep. Thomas Brown, R-Lansing.

Birzgalis said the law dealing with criminal sexual psychopaths (CSPs) should be amended, "as it is insufficient in regards to the managing of CSPs who are considered a menace to the community."

The doctor said he believes the majority of such criminals are competent to stand trial, are responsible for their offenses and, if found guilty, should receive sentences.

"In this respect the same procedure should apply to them as to persons who are accused of felonies," Birzgalis said. "After conviction CSPs who need and are amenable to treatment should be transferred to a mental hospital for treatment."

Under law, criminal charges against sexual psychopaths are dropped when the offenders are committed to Ionia State Hospital.

After receiving maximum benefit from treatment, the criminals should be returned to court for legal disposition, he said.

They should be transferred to prison to serve their remaining sentences if still considered dangerous to the community, he said.

The special committee has scheduled a hearing in Lansing for Thursday on proposed changes in the law governing sex offenders. More hearings will be held in September in Mount Clemens, Ypsilanti, Grand Rapids and Detroit.

Chrysler '68s Will Cost More

CHICAGO (AP) — Chrysler Corp. showed off 23 models of its Dodge line Wednesday and announced that the glittering chrome and metal 1968 automobiles will be higher prices than their predecessors.

The first of the five divisions unveiled to the newsmen was the Dodge family including the Dart, Charger, Coronet, Monaco and Polara.

The intermediates — Charger and Coronet — will sport a bigger front in 1968. The Coronet retains its 117-inch wheelbase but adds three inches in the hood for an overall 206-inch body.

The sportiest of the Dodge group is the Charger which has grown five inches to 206 inches in overall length from 1967. Headlights remain hidden in the grill, map pockets decorate the door interiors and a racing-type gas tank cap is perched on a rear fender.

The tunnelback roof styling forms a fastback silhouette and under the hood are v-8's ranging in horsepower from 230 to 425.

The luxury Dodges, Monaco and Polara, feature a return to indulgence in chrome styling while the compact Dart has a new rectangular grill in front of a v-8 which develops 275 hp.

The station wagon lines feature tail gate window wipers and a swing-out conventional type door.

Iron Mountain, Holy Name's first football foe, has 13 lettermen back from last year's squad that finished with a 5-4 overall record. Heading the list is senior Rudy Steiner, a 200 pound quarterback starting his third season at the position. The 6 foot 1 inch athlete was named to the All-U. P. first team backfield last year. Other veterans on the team are Pat Paquin, Mike Caruso, Dan Formolo, Dick Riske, John Fuse, Bob Malrack, Rick Underhill, Bruce Toretta, Al Schupp, Bruce Voelker, John Webb and John Benso. The Mountaineers, coached by George Guschik, compete in both the Great Northern and Menominee Range conferences.

Coach Jerry Pangrazzi of Marquette faces a rebuilding year with nine returnees back in action from the team that won four, lost two and tied two last fall. The Redman veterans include junior quarterback Dave Nyquist, Gary Padwin, Dave Meyers, Glen Brown, Bob Hunt, John Patterson, Paul Beauchaine, Craig Pletzke and Mike Zorza. Patterson, Zorza and Swanson are sidelined with injuries and are expected to see action in Friday night's opener against Kingsford.

Bill Dyke, Gwin High School junior, scored a hole in one on the 155 yard No. 6 hole at the Sawyer Air Force Base course. He is the son of Col. and Mrs. Samuel Dyke.

The Beaver Falcons, who stunned regular season champion Felch in the semifinals of the Wisconsin baseball league playoffs, continued their surprising surge by trimming Peabody, 6-0, in the first game of the best of three championship series. Carl Porior and Orle Ritter teamed up to handcuff the Indians with three hits. The Falcons reached Barry Veinstra and Jerry Boersinger for nine hits.

Bob Krysiak, coach of the Menominee Maroon basketball team that won the state Class B championship last winter, has been named to the state rules committee in basketball. He will attend the annual rules meeting in Lansing Sept. 18.

Bill Smith, youthful Sault Ste. Marie golfer, made a joke of the Soo Country Club men's championship tournament. The ex-U. P. titlist won the club crown with a 291 score over 72 holes. 25 strokes ahead of his nearest challenger. Phil Jacobs the runnerup. It could have been worse but Smith missed seven birdie putts in the final 18 holes.

Iverson Boys Extend Stock Car Win String

A sniveling crowd was on hand Wednesday night at the U. P. Fairgrounds to watch the Iverson brothers of Hyde, Bob and Herbie, continue their winning ways for the second race night.

Bob won the third heat and featured race for modified, and was followed to the finish line both times by Jerry Richer of Schaffer, Herby won the third heat and featured race for sportsmen, and was chased to the finish line each time by Dick Peterson of Ensign.

Dick Cool of Escanaba gave the crowd the thrill of the night. He drove his modified car over a sand embankment on the corner, flipped in the air, went through two wire fences and the aluminum outside fence rolling his car six times. He was not injured.

Speedy Streak Harness Winner

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP) — Del Cameron held two fingers about an inch apart and declared, "I missed being knocked completely out of the race by this much." Cameron won his third Hambletonian—the premier stake for 3-year-old trotters—Wednesday with Speedy Streak. The victory over 11 others came in successive 2:00 and 2:01 heats before 25,000 screaming fans in the betless race at the Du Quoin State Fairgrounds.

In the first mile heat, Speedy Streak beat Keystone Pride by four lengths, one of the biggest winning margins in the 10 years the Kentucky Derby of harness racing has been in Du Quoin.

"In the back stretch of that heat," Cameron disclosed, "Armstrong Harold misbehaved by an inch of locking wheels with me. There was a lot going on behind me at the time and if we had locked, it would have been disastrous. We would have been knocked out of the race. It gave me a scare."

Speedy Streak, barreling along from the outside in the stretch, won the second heat and the trophy by one length over the filly, Speed Model.

The victory was worth $60,000 and boosted Speedy Streak's total earnings to $94,779. He will try to surpass his price tag at Indianapolis next week.

Keystone Pride took second money of $30,040 with a second and third finish. Speed Model, 7-2 was third for $14,423 and Halifax Hanover, 3-4, fourth for $9,615.

The heavily-favored Dazzling Speed, trained by Dancer, was fifth with 4-11 for $6,000.

Halfback Spot Tough To Fill

(Last of a series)
HOUGHTON — "Filling the shoes of departed halfbacks Tom Csmarich, our MVP last year, and Fred Hall has to be the toughest job I have ahead of me this fall," says Michigan Tech football coach Bill Lucier. "However, even though we have lost a great pair, I feel we have an excellent group of halfbacks waiting in the wings. We begin to find out Friday (Sept. 1) when practice begins."

Listed to man the starting positions on the pre-season dope sheet are senior Dave Johnson (Ironwood) and sophomore Ken Mazur (Galesburg). Johnson has earned two letters as a sub and Mazur one. Both are slashing type runners. They led the club in running last spring and capped the off-season sessions by gaining 264 yards (132 each) in the spring game. Both exhibit good speed and are smart runners.

Another of last year's freshmen who impressed in the spring is Dick Bauman (Saginaw), a converted quarterback. Dick is a stylish runner who uses his blockers well. With improvement in his blocking techniques, Bauman should push for a starting berth.

Three local products should capture the fancy of Copper Country fans. Due in as freshmen are Jerry LaJeunesse (Houghton), son of Omer LaJeunesse, former MTU head coach, Al Eckart (Calumet) and Mike Gervais (Lake Linden). LaJeunesse and Eckart will be tried on defense and Gervais on offense. The latter is also a fine place kicker.

Three returnees from spring drills, freshman Stan Pakula (Stambaugh), Ed Tafelski (Ironwood) and Mike Malloy (DesPlaines, Ill.), will get a good crack at defensive posts as will newcomers Doug Brown (Battle Creek) and Curtis Lamar (Detroit).

Scheduled to push hard for offensive duty among the incoming players are Alex Scarsky (Warren), Howard Hagg (Ontonagon), John Panco (Mt. Clemens) and Paul Sharkey (Menominee). All are rated talented ball carriers by Lucier.

Sports In Brief

DETROIT (AP)—Veteran star Dave DeBusschere of the National Basketball Association Detroit Pistons was to undergo surgery today in Detroit for removal of callouses from both feet.

DeBusschere will be ready to report with other veterans for the start of Detroit's training camp at Marysville High School Sept. 11, the Pistons said.

batting average one point to .348. Cepeda's three safeties, though, lifted his mark three points to a runner-up .343.

Tim McCarver also starred for St. Louis. He drove in both runs with his 12th homer and a sacrifice fly. Larry Jaster and Ron Willis combined to limit the Mets to four hits.

Matty Alou, the defending batting titleholder, and Willie Stargell also helped the Pirates down the Braves. Alou collected four hits in five tries lifting his average to .338. Stargell weloped a two-run double and his 18th homer.

Home runs by Felipe Alou and Joe Torre had helped the Braves build a 4-0 lead, but Pittsburgh came back in the fourth and regained the lead on Clemente's two-bagger.

Pete Rose drove in the winning run for Cincinnati with a bloop double in the sixth inning that scored Tommy Harper. The blow broke a 1-1 tie. John Briggs homered for Philadelphia's only tally.

Lon Johnson and Ron Fairly each drove in three runs for the Dodgers against San Francisco. Johnson socked a three-run double while Fairly had a two-run homer and a run-producing single.

Ninth Inning Rally Trips Tigers, 3-2

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP)—Earl Wilson was two outs from becoming the American League's first 19-game winner, and the Detroit Tigers were about to take over second place by sweeping a four-game series from California.

Then a fellow named Bubba Morton, an ex-Tiger, poked a one-out ninth inning double that squared the ballgame at two-all. A few moments later Mr. Morton out-raced a Ray Oyler throw to home to beat the Detroiters 3-2 Wednesday night.

In the proceedings between Morton's accomplishments, Al Kaline fumbled a ball and Wilson left the ballgame in favor of young Fred Lasher, who the night before came on to assist John Hiller.

Bill Skowron bounced a Lasher pitch to Oyler whose throw came in second in the race with Morton.

The defeat dropped the Tigers 1 1/2 games behind league-leading Boston and one percentage point behind Minnesota.

The Tigers, off today, will attend to the Twins and that one per cent when the two clubs face each other for the last time this season in a three-game series opening Friday night.

In Wednesday's affair, the Angels had taken a 1-0 lead in the fourth inning on a walk, a wild pitch and a sacrifice fly.

But in the sixth, Detroit picked up their two runs and the lead which Wilson carried into the ninth on his three-hitter.

Kalene and Willie Horton singled to score McAuliffe who had opened the inning with a hit. Then Eddie Mathews hit a sacrifice fly to send Kaline in from third.

Morton batted .287 as a part time Detroit outfielder in 1961 and 1962, and was traded the next season. He lasted only a few games at Milwaukee before being banished to Toronto in 1963. Denver in 1964, Portland in 1965 and Seattle in 1966. At age 34, it looked last winter as if his hopes of returning to the majors were slim. His average at Seattle, the Angels farm club, was .286.

Angel manager Bill Rigney then started using Morton as a platoon player, employing him against certain types of left-hand pitching. Morton earned a job with the Angels.

Morton, who had thought seriously of quitting baseball last winter, now owns a .338 average and is the highest-hitting Angel.

Red Wings Ink Top Prospect

DETROIT (AP) — Henry Monteith, rated the best college hockey player in Canada last season by Detroit Red Wings scouts, Wednesday signed a professional contract with the National Hockey League Club.

Monteith, 21, played left wing for the University of Toronto. "We think Hank has a good chance to make the big club this season," said Sid Abel, Detroit general manager and coach.

Monteith scored 80 goals and 95 assists in 57 games at Toronto. He made the conference All-Star team each of his four varsity college seasons.

Oriole Duo Trims Twins

By The Associated Press
The Robinson Rock—the swinging melody that guided Baltimore to the World Championship last year—is in on the American League pennant chase again even though the Orioles are nowhere near the top this season.

Frank and Brooks Robinson, Baltimore's partners in punch, left Minnesota reeling with two straight losses that dropped the second place Twins 1 1/2 games off Boston's league leading pace.

Brooks lined a three-run double that keyed the Orioles' 4-3 victory over Minnesota Tuesday night and Frank hammered a two-run 10th inning homer giving Baltimore a 4-2 decision against Dean Chance Wednesday.

Elsewhere in the pennant race, Boston got an 11th inning home run from Carl Yastrzemski and nipped New York 2-1. It was the Red Sox' 14th victory in the last 18 games. Tommie Agee lined three key hits as Chicago topped Washington 5-1, and California pushed across two ninth inning runs that joined third-place Detroit, 3-2.

In other American League action, Kansas City shaded Cleveland 6-5 in 10 innings.

Chance, 17-10, was making his first start since pitching a no-hitter against Cleveland last week and he was trailing 2-1 until the eighth inning when Bob Allison smashed a pinch home run.

That sent the game into extra innings but not for long. Boog Powell singled with one out in the 10th and then, after Paul Blair was retired, Frank Robinson connected.

It was Robinson's 26th homer of the year and made a winner out of Eddie Watt, who struck out four in two innings of relief.

Yastrzemski, who had been hitless in 18 at bats in the Yankees series, redeemed himself with his 35th home run and beat Al Downing.

Downing struck out 12 batters but Yastrzemski, who entered the game in the eighth inning, snapped the tie in the 10th. The homer gave him the major league lead by one over Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew.

Chicago, which opens a crucial four-game series in Boston tonight, salvaged the final game of a three-game set in Washington, thanks mainly to Agee and Don Buford.

Agee singled and came around on Buford's hit and two infield outs in the first inning, singled again and scored on Buford's triple in the third and then doubled a run home in the seventh.

Danny Cater's fifth hit of the night drove in Kansas City's winning run in the 12th inning against Cleveland. Tony Horton knocked in three runs for the Indians.

Nursing Home To Operate For Year

State Rep. Charles Varnum (R-Manistique) announced today that the State Fire Safety Board had given the Delta Nursing Home permission to operate for one more year under certain conditions.

The state fire marshal had ordered the home, owned by Delta County and operated privately by Mrs. Delia Peterson for several years, closed last July 1. An extension later was granted to Oct. 1.

Delta County Board of Supervisors, said its chairman Charles Sedenquist, hoped that a nursing home would be provided by private enterprise to replace the Delta Nursing Home. The county wanted to get out of the infirmity business.

Willow Creek Developers, Inc. which built the Doctors Park professional services in Escanaba, has been developing a medicenter project to provide extended hospital care.

Varnum asked a meeting with the State Fire Safety Board which hears appeals from fire marshal's orders and it was held in Lansing Aug. 23 and addressed by Varnum, Mrs. Peterson and Walter Lewke of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce.

As result of this meeting, in which Varnum said he would ask no further extension of grace by the state after a year, and in which Mrs. Peterson said that she would continue to operate the nursing home for a year if given a state certificate, the board has granted the home one year of grace for operations.

The order to meet state fire sprinkler requirements and other safety standards for nursing homes will be suspended for the year, but some minor requirements like removal of locks from doors of patient rooms will be met.

Chairman Bernard F. Coster of the State Fire Safety Board sent Varnum the board's resolution, stating:

"It appears that actions finally are actually underway that will result in the existence of an acceptable facility to accommodate the patients now housed in the Delta Nursing Home and this unsafe home will then cease operation.

This board will grant this appeal by allowing extension of time for a period of one year, provided that progress reports are furnished to this board each 90 days that show progress toward utilization of a new facility and provided that minor safety items are immediately corrected as discussed at the hearing.

Volunteers Aid Youth In Delta

The Summer Student Youth Volunteer Program directed by Nan Park of Madison, Wis., and Betsy Gordon of Milwaukee, was rated very successful, according to Ray La Porte, director of the Menominee-Delta-Schoolcraft Community Action Agency.

The volunteers revived interest in scouting and a Girl Scout troop is being organized by Mrs. Wayne Groleau.

In July, a comedy, involving 7 to 12 year old youngsters, played to a capacity crowd in the Civic Center.

A tutoring program for Indian children, living on County Road 499, was rated very successful and the volunteers reported considerable progress for a number of children.

A field trip to the Marquette Planetarium and other points of interest was arranged for and over 50 children made the trip.

Swimming lessons were given and cookouts provided. The volunteers showed full-length movies and transported some of the children to the circus and U.P. State Fair in Escanaba.

In the field of social service, Indian children having health problems were brought to the County Health Department for examinations; and, through the cooperation of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, clothing and household items were distributed to needy Indian families.

The Student Youth Volunteers are associated with VISTA Volunteers and donate their services. The only income they receive is intended to cover their lodging and food.

Two permanent VISTA Volunteers, Paula Root and Ruth Nixon, are now assigned to the Nahma, Cooks, Garden area and will continue and expand the summer programs initiated by the SYV girls.

Area Teachers Ratify Pact

Teachers of the Escanaba Area school district today ratified the master contract with the Board of Education providing for wages and working conditions for the 1967-68 school year. Erwin Slade, president of the Escanaba Education Association announced.

Vote on the contract, which had been previously ratified by the Board of Education, was taken at pre-school conferences this morning.

The one-year contract for a minimum starting salary of $5,700 for teachers with bachelor's degrees and $6,200 for master's degree holders. The new $5,700 base rate is $350 over the 1966-67 base.

PTA Program Of Work Is Progressing

Mrs. Leo Niquette returned recently from Lansing after attending the third executive meeting held this summer. Mrs. Niquette having served in many positions in a local Parent Teacher unit, the Area PTA Council and District 19 as director, is now serving the entire Upper Peninsula as Region A vice president.

"The PTA has helped to provide many advantages in education, health, safety and legislation in the interest of children and youth. The POW program is dealing with six significant, vital subjects: Leadership Development; PTA Membership and Knowing Your Schools; Family Life Education; Legislation; Teacher Recruitment; Safety, Recreation, Leisure."

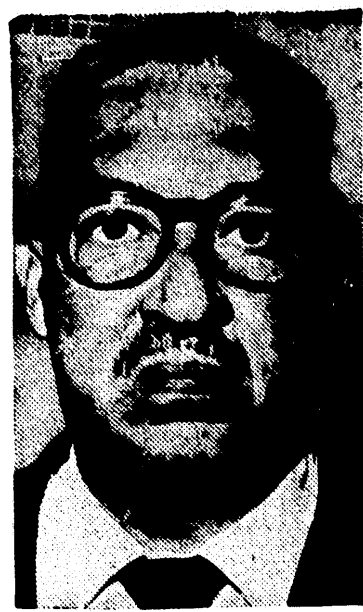

"A United Program of Work will meet the major challenges today. The results will go a long way toward making the PTA efforts more effective in improving the home, school and community. Increasing PTA membership and participation. Improving the relationships between the PTA, the school board, the school administrators, the teachers, the parents, the students and others."

To make this program more effective plans have been made for the membership drive this year with tapes being provided to radio stations with spot announcements. Auto stickers are available with the slogan—"Join PTA."

Fall PTA Workshops are also being planned. Any group of PTA's wanting a workshop in their area, write to Mrs. Leo Niquette, 220 N. 21st St., Escanaba 49829. A district workshop will be held late in October in Marquette, date and place to be announced later.

Thurgood Marshall

Marshall 1st Negro Justice

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thurgood Marshall, great-grandson of a slave and a longtime fighter for equal rights for Negroes, has won Senate confirmation as the nation's first Negro Supreme Court justice.

By a 69 to 11 margin, the Senate confirmed Wednesday President Johnson's nomination of Marshall, 57, who was for many years chief legal officer of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Marshall, currently U.S. solicitor general, will fill a high court vacancy created by the retirement of Justice Tom C. Clark, who stepped down when his son, Ramsey Clark, was named attorney general earlier this year.

Swearing in of Marshall is not expected until October, when the court reconvenes for its autumn term.

Strike Feared At White Pine

WHITE PINE (AP)—A strike by members of the United Steelworkers Union today appeared imminent at the White Pine Copper Co. in this Western Upper Michigan copper center.

The union has termed the company's latest offer "totally inadequate." The company has not made its offer public, and the union has revealed no details on its demands.

Federal and state mediators met Tuesday night in effort to bring both sides to an agreement, but no progress was reported towards a new contract or an extension of the current one which expires at midnight tonight.

College To Add New Programs, Tax Vote Hinted

The Board of Trustees of Bay de Noc Community College Wednesday night gave tentative approval to the addition of four new instructional programs and 10 new staff members for the 1968-69 school year and strongly hinted it will ask Delta County residents to vote extra millage to pay for them.

Action was after a discussion of the 1968-69 program and budget initiated by Dr. Richard Rinehart, college president.

Rinehart said he must have some indication from the Board on program now to include in budget proposals to be sent to state officials in Lansing.

Programs tentatively approved are automated machine operator, executive secretary, middle management and police administration.

Additional staff as recommended by Dr. William Butt, academic dean, would include a counselor, history teacher, two English instructors, an accounting instructor, a person to teach both French and Spanish, a full-time art instructor, a teaching assistant for science to help in the laboratory sections and two teachers in the technical field.

Rinehart said that figuring normal operating cost increases, plus cost of new programs, the college would need an additional $90,000 revenue over what it is now getting to implement the programs. He said that if the state approves a $100 boost in per student payments, a net enrollment grows to its expected 550 full-time students, the local share would be about $35,000.

"Under any and all circumstances it looks like we are definitely stymied unless we produce more local monies," said Joseph Heirman, board chairman.

Heirman also pointed out that adding the programs wouldn't do any good unless the Board of Trustees makes some provision for a place to hold classes.

Current enrollment at the college of 610 individual students, of which 400 are full-time, has jammed the present

Highway Jobs Facing Strike

DETROIT (AP) — Some $125 million in highway construction projects throughout Michigan were threatened today by a possible strike.

Contracts between five unions and the Michigan Road Builders Association expire at midnight, and at least one union has announced that its members may walk off their jobs.

Louis Blok, business manager of Local 324 of the Operating Engineers, said there was a definite possibility of a strike but added that negotiations were continuing.

"We are preparing for a strike," Blok said, adding that members of his 2,900-man union have voted 350-150 to reject a contract offer which would have raised wages $1.80 an hour over a three-year period. The average hourly rate now is $4.34.

William Saxton, an attorney for the builders association, said he saw no hopeful signs in the status of negotiations.

Tempers of highway projects would affect all road construction, including the Fisher Freeway scheduled for a late November opening in Detroit and a 36-mile stretch of Interstate 69 between Marshall and the Indiana border, which is set for a late fall completion.

A State Highway Department spokesman said that any slight delay in construction would postpone the opening of both projects until spring.

Involved in the negotiations in addition to the Operating Engineers are the Teamsters, Laborers, Cement Finishers and Bricklayers unions.

The Road Builders Association has sent telegrams to its members warning of the possibility of a strike by the Operating Engineers, who run all power-driven equipment on construction jobs.

Menominee Sets Contract Talks With Teachers

MENOMINEE — The Menominee Board of Education and a negotiating team for teachers of the school district will resume contract talks at 11 a.m. Friday in hopes of reaching a settlement before school opens Tuesday.

The teachers have indicated they will not report for the first day of classes unless a settlement is reached. Both groups indicated, however, they are hopeful of reaching an agreement.

Dr. Baldwin Dies At 62

Dr. Robert S. Baldwin, 62, of Oconomowoc, Wis., died Tuesday at the family's summer home near Hartland, Wis.

Dr. Baldwin, a retired Marshfield, Wis., physician and former medical editor of the Wisconsin Medical Journal, was born in Munising in 1804 and spent the early part of his life in Escanaba. He was graduated from Escanaba High School in 1922 and received his M.D. degree from the University of Chicago in 1931.

Dr. Baldwin was associated with the Marshfield Clinic from 1934 until his retirement in 1965. From 1940-1945 he served in the Medical Corps of the U.S. Army. Since his retirement he had been employed by the Florida state board of health, caring for migrant workers and Indians.

Survivors include his widow, Dr. Elizabeth Baldwin, a Marshfield physician, four children, one sister, three brothers, and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Saphrona Baldwin of Escanaba, widow of the late Theodore Baldwin.

Funeral services are to be conducted in Oconomowoc.
